

Woody's Arcade
3/15 Dampier Terrace
Broome WA 6725
08 9192 7563

dacoubroome@bigpond.com
www.dacou.com.au

dacou aboriginal art

Dreaming Art Centre of Utopia
Established 1993

Sydney + Melbourne + Adelaide + Broome

DACOU Broome Aboriginal Gallery is an exciting addition to the Broome art scene. We specialise in artworks from Utopia. DACOU stands for Dreaming Art Centre of Utopia and was established in 1993. DACOU is a respected name in the Aboriginal art world.

DACOU was established by Fred Torres and his mother renowned artist Barbara Weir. Barbara along with internationally acclaimed Emily Kame Kngwarreye, Minnie Pwerle (Fred's grandmother), her sisters Emily, Molly and Galya Pwerle, Gloria Petyarre, Anna Petyarre and many other important artists are represented by DACOU.

Many of the senior artists that DACOU represents have achieved world wide recognition and are included in the permanent collections of important national and international museums. When you visit the gallery our friendly and informative staff can help you select a painting from the 500 artworks available. Paintings range in price from $100 for artworks that will easily fit into your luggage to major paintings for the discerning art collector.

Emily Kame Kngwarreye	Anna Petyarre
Minnie Pwerle	Annie Hunter
Barbara Weir	Susie Hunter
Emily Pwerle	Glory Ngarla
Galya Pwerle	Janie Morgan
Molly Pwerle	Jessie Hunter
Angelina Pwerle	Katie Morgan
Gloria Petyarre	Betty Mbitjana
Nancy Petyarre	Molly Ross
Kathleen Petyarre	Patrick Ross
Violet Petyarre	William Ross
Greeny Petyarre	Myrtle Petyarre
Simon Purla	Motor Car Jim
Freddy Purla	Alfee Dickson
Jeannie Petyarre	Joy Petyarre
Ada Bird	Lizzie Pwerle
Lindsay Bird

The art works arrived this morning and look fantastic. We are very pleased with the purchases. Thanks again for your assistance. Regards, Bob

Thank you - our parcel of Barbara Weir canvases arrived in fine order and they are as beautiful as we remember - we look forward to getting them stretched and up on the walls. Many thanks for all your patience with us while we deliberated! Best wishes, Sue

Really happy with the purchase and thanks for organizing the stretching looking forward to getting the painting. Kind Regards Jane and Peter

Emily, Minnie, Molly and Galya Pwerle