"I try to capture images with that rare, soft quality of light that allows me to show people a scene they have possibly walked past or looked at a hundred times, but have never really seen before." Nigel Gaunt

Nigel Gaunt

Red Dirt Photographic Tours

This award winning photographer has been conducting photographic tours in the Kimberley for the past seven years with over thirty years experience as a photographer. Nigel specialises in helping to explore the rugged Kimberley landscape photographically and captures the wild light that the area is famous for. You will learn professional camera techniques and image composition. "When we photograph a landscape, we want to capture not only the detail of the scene, but more intimately, its mood and soul".

August 13 - 15, September 12 - 14, October 12 - 14

DAY 1 Pick up from your accommodation in Broome and travel to Beagle Bay for morning tea and the first photography opportunity, the Sacred Heart Church, with it's unique pearl shell altar. Then to Lombadina to settle into your rooms and explore the local area. After lunch we're off to Kooljamon Resort for a swim and photograph the beautiful Red Cliffs at sunset, before a BBQ dinner and slide evening.

DAY 2 Is an early start photographing Cape Leveque in the beautiful early morning light. After breakfast we drive to One Arm Point and the Aquaculture Centre with its stunning views of Sunday Island. Lunch is back at the camp with some free time before your second sunset photo shoot, followed by the Staircase to the Moon.

DAY 3 After breakfast we go on a guided canoe tour and snorkelling over the reef with a local Bardi man. We have the last photo opportunity at Lombadina along with lunch, before winding our way back to Broome. Return to your accommodation around 5pm.

The itinerary is subject to change as cultural events and the weather can alter the schedule.
